

Our Responsibility

Let's look at the relationship between God's sovereignty and our responsibility. Read Psalm 127:1. What does God do in this verse? What do people do?

---

This verse shows that we have responsibilities as believers; the responsibilities named here are building and watching. However, the psalmist also says that God is actually doing the building and watching. How can this be? The verse is saying that we are to depend on God to enable us to do our responsibilities. Depending on God doesn't mean that we do nothing, it means that we obey God and ask Him for the strength to do so.

What are some things you can build or watch out for as you follow God?

To help see what you may need to watch for, do a word study on the word "watch" and look especially in the apostle Paul's letters in the New Testament.

The Battlefield

Romans 12 tells us that we are to be transformed by the renewing of our minds. Our minds are the battlefield. In battle, one of Satan's tactics in our minds is to make us feel rejected. Rejection makes us feel isolated. It can be a very destructive emotion and a deadly strategy of the enemy.

When Jesus lived on earth, he was rejected too. Read the following verses and write what they say about Jesus.

The War

What happens when temptation seems to come over and over again? What do we do when we can't stop doing something that's wrong? Satan wages war against us, and his strategy is to attack our minds until he wears us down and captures our thoughts. This attack is known as "spiritual warfare."

Jesus experienced spiritual warfare as well. In fact, Satan tempted Jesus just like Satan tempts us! We can learn a lot from how Jesus responded to the devil's attacks.

Read Matthew 4:1-11 and answer the following questions.

God's Sovereignty means...

What is God sovereign over? This is a question that we might wrestle with as Christians. Explore the following verses and record what God is sovereign over:

Proverbs 21:1

1 Chronicles 29:11-12

---

2 Chronicles 20:6

---

Jeremiah 14:22

---

In the space below, draw a picture of things that God is sovereign over. Does this include animals? Politicians? Weather? Musicians? The universe? Of course it does! Praise God that He is sovereign over all!

Sometimes when bad things happen it is hard to trust God's sovereignty. Look at Habakkuk 3:17-19. What is his situation in verse 17? In verse 18 what does he still choose to do? What does he say God is in verse 19 in the midst of his trial? This is something we can cling onto!

Dear God

Praise You that You are a sovereign God. You are in control of everything, and we can trust You. Even in the bad times, please help me to trust Your sovereignty in my life.

Forgiveness

Forgiveness is an important theme throughout the Bible. One person who modeled forgiveness really well is Joseph. Read Genesis 37:1-36. Why did Joseph's brothers hate him? What did they do to him?

---

Read Genesis 39:1-23. What temptation did Joseph face? What happened when he resisted it?

---

Later in the story, Joseph becomes high in command and he and his brothers reunite. Does he forgive them? Read Genesis 50:15-21 and record what Joseph does:

---

In the space below, draw pictures representing the story of Joseph. Make sure to include what his brothers did wrong against him, but also show that he chose to forgive them in the end!

How should we respond towards people who sin against us? Why should we do so? Read Ephesians 4:31-32 and see what the apostle Paul has to say:

Victory Over Discouragement

Many times, in life we feel discouraged. People in the Bible felt this often! One example of this is Jeremiah, who writes about his struggles in the book of Lamentations. Read Lamentations 3:1-20. What words would you use to describe how he is feeling?

How Jeremiah is feeling:

In Lamentations 3:21-27, Jeremiah's tone changes. He remembers some things and therefore has hope. What does He remember in these verses?

What Jeremiah remembers:

What caused Jeremiah's change of heart? He turned from the circumstances as his focus to a focus on God. Jeremiah remembered God's great love and faithfulness.

Read the following verses and write what they tell you about God's love: Psalm 32:10, Isaiah 54:10, Lamentations 3:32. You can cling to these things when you feel discouraged!

God's Love:

Do a word study on the word “unfailing/steadfast love” in Psalm 32:10. What is the importance of this word in the Old Testament?

David is saying in these verses that God created his physical body as well as his personality. God has created each of us uniquely! Check out these other verses that show the same theme and write what each verse says:

Knowing that God is intimately involved with creating us in our mother's womb helps us to understand that a God so much a part of the creative process must also have a plan for our lives. Each of us is designed uniquely to fulfill the plan that He has for us. Our disabilities and our abilities all fit into that plan. God's plan embraces more than the circumstances of our lives. It also includes what He wants us to be and do. God's sovereignty determines our function with the Body of Christ and the corresponding spiritual gifts that we receive to carry out our function.

What are some of the gifts that God has given to you? The first step to knowing what God might be calling you to do is knowing the way He has made you. That includes your personality, interests, passions, and even spiritual gifts! Ask your parents and people who know you well that could tell you some of your personal gifts. Draw gift boxes and inside write the different unique ways God has made you

My Gifts:

Given your gifts, what types of things do you think God might be calling you specifically to do? Ask God to show you what He is calling you to do specifically, and write some ideas of what you think those things might be!

God might be calling me to...

Dear God

Thank you for making me uniquely and wonderfully! Please show me the ways you have made me and how I can use my life for Your glory.

Amen

When we are running the race of life, it's easy to lose our joy. We quickly move into cycles of bitterness. Bitterness can cause us to have God's blessings; it can also cause us to be angry and hostile toward others. Bitterness often comes when we receive discipline.

Read Hebrews 12:5-15. Answer the following questions:

How are we to respond to God when he disciplines us? (v. 5)

---

Who does the Lord discipline? (v. 6-7)

---

When we are disciplined, what should we do? (v. 7)

---

What is the purpose of God's discipline? (v. 10)

---

What fruit does discipline yield? (v. 11)

---

What are we to strive for? (v. 14)

---

What are we to not let spring up? (v. 15)

When tough times happen in life, we must ask for God's joy to be our strength. We must endure and trust God in the midst of whatever is happening.

Read Proverbs 3:5-6. What are we to do? When we do this, what does God promise He will do?

---

---

---

Dear God

May your joy be my strength when things aren't going well in life. I want to continue to trust You! Please keep me from bitterness and help me endure at all times.

Amen

This verse does not tell us that God will not explain to us, but says that, even if God gave full explanation we would not be able to understand.

Victory over Despair and Anger

Despair is when there is no hope. Despair causes your mind to become numb. It can also lead to frantic activity. When we despair, we do things that we normally would never do.

Even in times of despair, Christianity offers something that no other religion claims: assurance of salvation. This assurance is the birthright of every child of God. The greatest victory of the enemy is to cause the believer to lose hope. We lost hope when we act according to our own emotions or human reasoning rather than trusting God's Word. We lose hope when we focus on circumstances. We lose hope when we leave God out of the picture.

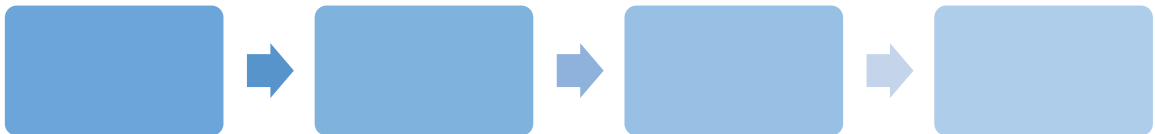

Romans 5 tells us where our hope comes from and what it does. Read Romans 5:1-5. Ultimately what produces hope? Why does hope not put us to shame

Write below the chain of things that ultimately produces hope.

Always Trust God

Because God is sovereign and wise, we can always trust. If we are going to honor Him in times of adversity, we must trust Him. There is more at stake than experiencing peace in our difficulties (or deliverance from our difficulties). The honor of God should be our primary concern!

There are responses that show that we are trusting God. Today we will look at some of them. Match the following verses to the way it says we can trust God!

Forgiveness

Job 1:20-21
